

NBS-200 - compact notebook stand made of aluminum

The NBS-200 is a compact notebook stand made of aluminum, which is suitable for all common notebooks in 11-15.6". It can be adjusted in height in 7 steps (55-155mm) and contributes passively due to its open frame design to the cooling of the notebook.

Thanks to its compact dimensions, the NBS-200 fits on almost all work surfaces and is just 240x45x15mm when folded, which makes it the perfect companion in the notebook bag. The matching transport bag for the notebook stand also makes it easy to stow away.

A total of 14 rubber pads protect the notebook and the work surface from scratches and prevent annoying vibrations that can arise when working with the notebook.
